

DUES FEES SCHEDULE AND MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES: CALENDAR YEAR 2018

Dues are payable on a calendar year basis via check or credit card and, except for student membership, include subscription to the official journal of the ACMG, Genetics in Medicine. Dues for 2018 are shown below.

FELLOWS (FACMG) possess a relevant doctoral degree (MD, DO, PhD) and a current and active general certificate issued by the ABMGG in one of the following specialties: Clinical Genetics, Clinical Biochemical Genetics, Clinical Cytogenetics or Clinical Molecular Genetics or an equivalent issued by the CCMG or the RCPS. Those applying for Fellow membership within the first 6 months of earning their initial genetics certification are eligible for a two-year membership discount (refer to the dues schedule for discount details).

MD, AMA MEMBER $430

MD, NON-AMA MEMBER $830

PhD $630

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS YEAR 1 $160

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS YEAR 2 $315

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS are certified in genetic counseling or eligible for certification in genetic counseling by, the ABGC, or a College-recognized equivalent. $255

AFFILIATE MEMBERS do not possess a relevant doctoral degree but have an active professional interest in medical genetics. $255

AFFILIATE SCIENTIST MEMBERS possess a relevant doctoral degree and have an active professional interest in medical genetics. $305

AFFILIATE SPECIALIST MEMBERS possess a relevant doctoral degree and a current and active general certificate issued by one of the member boards (except ABMGG) of the ABMS, by a College-recognized dental or osteopathic specialty board, or by the RCPS. $305

CANDIDATE FELLOWS possess a relevant doctoral degree and are eligible for certification, but not yet certified, by the ABMGG, the CCMG, or the RCPS. Candidate Fellowship membership will expire in the odd year in which the next ABMGG, CCMG, or the RCPS exam is held. $160

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS possess the same qualifications as Members and reside permanently outside the United States and Canada. $305

CORRESPONDING FELLOWS possess the same qualifications as Fellows and reside permanently outside the United States and Canada. $305

EMERITUS FELLOWS are ACMG Fellow members in good standing for at least 5 consecutive years, that are 65 years or older, permanently retired and no longer working or working part time less than 20% full time hours. $175

EMERITUS MEMBERS are non-Fellow in good standing for at least 5 consecutive years, that are 65 years or older, permanently retired and no longer working or working part time less than 20% full time hours. $175

TRAINEE MEMBERS are enrolled in a graduate medical or post-doctoral training program in medical genetics accredited by the ACGME, the ABMGG, the CCMG, or the RCPS; a non-medical-genetics residency program accredited by the ACGME or the RCPS; or a post-doctoral fellowship in a relevant field with an active professional interest in medical genetics. $110

STUDENT MEMBERS are individuals at least 18 years of age and enrolled in medical school, an undergraduate or graduate school program in a relevant field, or a training program in genetic counseling. $0